

GLOOM AT CAMP FOLLOWS RUMOR

Men Fear Pershing's Withdrawal Would Keep Them From Border.

The news of a possibility of the withdrawal of Pershing's column from Mexico put gloom in the mobilization camp at Camp Ordway yesterday. Officers and men fear that if the troops are recalled from Mexico the services of the troops now in Camp Ordway will not be needed on the border, and that the Third Infantry, Battery A and Troop A will never see Mexico. This belief is strong in the camp despite the promise of officers that the troops will move as soon as the strike situation becomes settled.

The troops will not be sufficiently equipped or ready to move for a week, said Capt. Horace Hobbs, mustering officer, yesterday. The condemnation of old property and the replacing of it with new is now occupying the attention of the soldiers.

Troop A received most of its needed horse equipment yesterday. Capt. J. H. Washburn believes that the troop is well enough equipped to go to the border now, although there are still minor articles that the troopers have not received. For a week the cavalrymen will be busy assembling and learning about the equipment.

The Guardsmen filled out a little blue slip yesterday which they called their "death warrant." On this designation slip each soldier wrote the name of the person who would receive six months' pay should they die from wounds or disease while in the service. This "death money" would be $50 in the case of a private.

Recruiting is practically at a standstill at the camp. Only two men were enlisted yesterday.

GEORGE WASHINGTON'S WILL NOW RESTORED

Expert in Library of Congress Repairs Damage Done by Time and Rough Handling.

There is no chance for the wills of George and Martha Washington going into the discard because of old age. William Berwick, an expert on old manuscripts in the Library of Congress, has restored them to nearly their original condition and they have been carefully locked away in a new vault in the old Fairfax County Court House, at Fairfax, Va.

Exposure for many years and the handling of the historic documents, it is said, was the cause of their being in such bad shape, that it was feared they could not be preserved for future generations. Mr. Berwick, however, restored them so that even the writing has the appearance of having been recently made.

The wills are now enclosed in a hermetically sealed case with specially constructed glass to insure their protection. They are now safe from injury either at the hands of vandals or by the action of the air.

Funerals

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary C. Mulhall will be held from her late residence, 1405 Newton street northwest, tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock. Requiem mass will be celebrated at the Church of the Sacred Heart.

Funeral services for John W. Lowell, the civil war veteran who dropped dead Thursday evening, will be held in St. Patrick's Catholic Church on Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock.

SCOUT CAMP SOON TO CLOSE.

Ends August 28 So Boys May Attend Auto Races.

The closing date for Camp Archibald Butt, the Boy Scout camp near Chesapeake Beach, is announced as August 28. The date, originally set for September 1, was changed to allow the Boy Scouts to do patrol duty at the automobile races at Benning track on Labor Day.

The scouts will also take part in various contests in connection with the races. Troops having 50 per cent of their members on police duty will be eligible to the contests. Boys from these troops will compete and a $50 prize will be awarded by the American Automobile Racing Association to the troop winning the most events.
